

Entrepreneur vs Intrapreneur (vsdiff.com)

Criteria	Entrepreneur	Intrapreneur
Definition	An individual who creates and runs a new business venture	An employee who acts like an entrepreneur within a company
Risk Tolerance	High risk, manages both financial and personal stakes	Moderate risk, less personal financial risk involved
Resources	Owns and manages resources, often limited by personal capital	Access to company resources, often extensive
Motivation	Driven by personal vision, independence, and innovation	Driven by corporate goals, innovation within boundaries
Impact on Business	Creates new markets and industries	Enhances existing business models and processes
Examples	Steve Jobs, Elon Musk	Google's intrapreneurial projects, 3M's post-it notes

Source: <https://vsdiff.com/entrepreneur-vs-intrapreneur/>