

Entrepreneurship vs Employment (vsdiff.com)

Criteria	Entrepreneurship	Employment
Definition	Starting and operating one's own business.	Working for someone else in a structured environment.
Risk Level	High, with potential for loss and uncertainty.	Lower, with consistent paycheck and benefits.
Income Potential	Unlimited, dependent on business success.	Fixed, based on salary and hourly wage.
Work Hours	Often long and irregular.	Typically set hours, usually 9-5.
Job Security	Uncertain, can fluctuate with the market.	Generally stable, especially with established companies.
Creativity and Control	High freedom in decision-making and innovation.	Limited to job role; decisions are often made by others.
Skills Required	Entrepreneurial skills, business acumen, and resilience.	Technical or professional skills specific to the job.

Source: <https://vsdiff.com/entrepreneurship-vs-employment/>