

Smart Lock vs Traditional Lock (vsdiff.com)

Feature	Smart Lock	Traditional Lock
Operation Method	Smartphone, keypad, or biometric	Physical key
Convenience	High, can be operated remotely	Requires physical key for access
Security Level	Can be more secure with encryption	Vulnerable to lock picking
Power Source	Battery-operated; can run out	No power required
Cost	Generally more expensive	Usually less expensive
Installation	Can be complex, may require a professional	Relatively simple to install
Features	Remote access, activity logs, integration with other smart devices	Limited to mechanical functionality

Source: <https://vsdiff.com/smart-lock-vs-traditional-lock/>