

Crocodile vs Alligator (vsdiff.com)

Feature	Crocodile	Alligator
Habitat	Freshwater and saltwater	Primarily freshwater
Muzzle Shape	V-shaped	U-shaped
Size	Crocodiles are generally larger, reaching up to 23 feet.	Alligators typically max out at about 19 feet.
Teeth Visibility	When the mouth is closed, the fourth tooth is visible.	When closed, teeth are not visible .
Color	Olive brown with lighter undersides.	Dark gray to black in color.
Behavior	More aggressive than alligators.	Generally more docile, especially among humans.

Source: <https://vsdiff.com/crocodile-vs-alligator/>